

Modulo 5 Calculator

Instructions: Cut out all the pieces of the the calculator along the outside edges. Punch a hole in the large point in the center of each piece.

To add using modulo 5, place the shape representing the first addend on the base, with 0 placed on the 0 mark for the base. Place the shape representing the second added on the base, with the 0 placed on the end of the first shape. Read the result from the base.